I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

State here briefly the FACTS that support your case. Describe what happened, how you were harmed, and what each defendant personally did or failed to do that harmed you. Attach additional pages if needed.

I have been homeless since 2014 and stayed periodically at the Bowery Mission. Through my stay I have encountered the staff living off my every word. Following and orchestrating my movements through out the church. I am grateful for the service offered but no resolution or conversation appeared to me directly. I am aware that all volunteer staff all working staff is aware of my situation. Obstruction is occurring and has been for a long time. I told them about the corruption that has been present due to their action. They refuse to acknowledge and speak to me directly instead would rather speak to their guilt and allow the obstruction to further develop...
